Objective To obtain a challenging position within a news organization. Motivated to learn the station values and bring my experience to a team that is committed to bring to the community the news in a way that will help them make better decisions in their lives.

Experience October 2018 - Present
Univision Chicago
Morning / Midday News Anchor

I moved to Chicago to further my career and joined the new morning newscast “Primera Hora” a 2 hour show (5 – 7am) focused on local news and our community. This was the first morning show in Spanish in the Chicago area. I also anchor the midday show “Edicion Digital”. During these five years in Chicago I been invited as an MC for many community events and I also won 3 Emmys for news specialty report in 2019, program host in 2020 and for an environmental story in 2023.

WTTW Chicago
Guest Host

I guest host for “Chicago Tonight: Latino Voices” on the local PBS affiliate. I’m invited to anchor their weekly show where we highlight the achievements and contributions of the Hispanic community in Chicago, a place where I can also showcase my bicultural background.

August 2013 – August 2017
Telemundo 60 KVDA – San Antonio, TX
News Anchor

As the main anchor for Telemundo 60 I had the privilege to bring the news to our community in a way they can relate. I wrote and helped gather information for our 4:30, 5 and 10pm news casts. During sweeps I scheduled interviews, wrote and edited my own packages and was proud to be a correspondent for the station during Pope Francis first visit to the US-Mexico border.

June 2011- August 2013
Radio Formula Network - San Antonio, TX
Operations Manager – On Air Personality

As an Operations Manager and On Air Personality, my responsibilities involved producing a news morning show (7-8am) with the most relevant local and international information and sports, assisting our General Manager in the day-to-day operations such as: organizing commercial logs, keeping track of sales, bring new advertisers, establish strategic trades, and promote Radio Formula as the only “Spanish Talk” format in San Antonio catering to Mexican Nationals.

May 2010 – Feb 2011
Univision 41-kwex – San Antonio, TX
Sports Anchor

As sports anchor, I had the chance to cover the world cup in 2010, I was responsible for writing and producing my own segment and being on air to present the most relevant sports stories, during the 5 and 10pm news casts. Had the opportunity to interview important sports figures such as: Manu Ginobili, Lorena Ochoa, Oscar de la hoya and more.

August 2006 – March 2009

BMP Radio – San Antonio, TX

On-Air Personality / 104.1 Digital

After years of experience in the field of business and voice overs, I made a life changing decision by choosing radio as a career. BMP gave me my first opportunity in 2006. I started part time on the weekends but moved my way up to a fulltime shift. Gained experience in live remotes, live concerts and interviews with the most promising artists in the Spanish pop format.
